The People of Peace

Kudos to Virginia Iverson who was featured in a recent article of the Register Guard. She has continued Songbird's tradition of organizing collecting school supplies. Interestingly enough the originator of the school supplies program for Whitaker was our own Penny Anderson. Read more about Penny's recent award in this Dove.

We lost two of our members recently. Our prayers and thoughts are with the families of Thelma Coombs and Daniel Self. A memorial Service for Thelma will be held at Peace @ 11 a.m. on April 30th. A memorial celebration at Peace will be held for Dan on Saturday, May 28th.

Remember also other members of the Peace family with severely declining health. Myrna Phillips' husband, Jay, has come home from the hospital, and Stella Clark, at Lone Oak, are in need of our prayers.

Cleo Browning is still struggling with her back recovery also.

. If your mailing address changes, please contact the Dove. We're often having to pay $1.00 for each return. We are also in need of new subscribers to the Dove. In order to send bulk mail we need to mail 200 Doves. We are near that critical number and could use some more recipients. Thanks. The Management

Pastor's Page:

Pulpit Puzzler gets Rapid Reply
Occasionally I offer a "pulpit puzzler," a question in the sermon that will require, at least for most people, a bit of research to come up with the correct answer. I will continue to offer these puzzlers in the future—yet another reason to be present for worship and stay awake during the sermon! You could win a fabulous prize!

On Palm Sunday, April 17th, our choir sang an anthem called "Let the Rocks Cry Out!" The question I asked from the pulpit was, "where did the anthem writer find that phrase that provides the title and the recurring refrain in his song?"

Alert listener Jim Mitchelmore (who had a slight advantage in being our choir director and also the one who selected the anthem!) researched the question on Google during coffee hour and was the first to give me the right answer, which is "Luke 19:40." At verse 39, following Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem amid the cheering crowds, Luke writes that "some of the Pharisees in the multitude said to (Jesus), 'Teacher, rebuke your disciples.' He answered, 'I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out.'" (Who knew that the Rolling Stones were that old?)

Although all four of the gospel accounts record the story of the Palm Sunday parade, the phrase about the crying rocks is found only in Luke's gospel. If you could identify where Luke found his material in a tradition prior to his gospel, you could be recognized as a world-class Bible scholar!

The message I take away is similar to what Matthew has John the Baptist preach to those in his audience who were so proud of their blood-lines: "...do not presume to say to yourselves, 'we have Abraham as our father'; for tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham." (Matt. 3:9)

So be of good cheer! God is never left without witness! When you and I cop out on Jesus or wimp out on our basic convictions in the face of adversity, when we have hopes we parade but do not pursue, God will find a way forward—with us or without us! If we fall into conformist silence, even the rocks will cry out! Let us be thankful!

A Note from Kerry Crow, our Office Administrator:

"Below is the address of my upcoming trip to Europe - World of Paul Pilgrimage. - bookmark it in your favorites and you can check it out each day as we will be posting comments while we are on the road. There is a video you can view as well right now that will tell you briefly of the journey will embark on.

We depart Saturday April 30th @7:30 a.m. from Portland - our flight is 21 hours - yikes!"

<http://worldofpaulpilgrimage.blogspot.com>
Since Kerry will be out of the office the first part of June, would anyone like to volunteer to help in the office by answering phones, etc? BWC

Thank You, and Thank You Again
I have heard from many of you say how grateful you are that our members (Jack Rogers, Sterling and Jane Heidigger, Virginia Iverson, Marthana Gugleilmo, BJ Burnett, Michele Ward, Jerry Kalina), the guest speakers, and the access committee educated us about hearing loss and vision loss. Now we all know that we can get useful information from our fellow Church members and maybe, most important, a sympathetic ear, when we need it. Watch for an announcement about an opportunity to learn about physical disabilities next summer!

Bruce Rose Award
for Lifetime Community Service

Penny Anderson and Robert Vaughn will be recognized for their lives of service to others on Sunday, May 15th. Awards will be presented during our Church service on Sunday May 15, there will be a celebration time following Church in the fellowship hall.

Marthana Honored

We are pleased to honor Marthana Guglielmo during Lane County's eighth Annual Older Americans Month celebration in May. The theme this year is "Lane County Honors Older Americans: Breaking Barriers". Marthana is truly an inspiration. Her mantra is, "you can still do anything, only in a different way." She wants to inspire others to collect their strength and courage, learn the skills and gather the tools available to them and go out their and live their life! It is all about attitude and adapting. Marthana and seven others will be honored at the celebration on May 19th, 4:30PM Willamalane Adult Activity Center, 215 W. C Street, Springfield. Friends and family are welcome to attend.

Eugene Scottish Festival Needs a Wee Bit of Your Time

One of our goals for the 9th Annual Scottish Festival is that everyone at Peace is given an opportunity to help and time to enjoy the festival. We have a need for volunteers to help in the Information Booth, The Gift Shoppe, Kids area, Banger Booth and set up and clean up. If you have not already had your arm twisting phone call from me, please let me know as I don't want to miss anyone. If everyone does an hour of volunteer work on the festival day they will have the rest of the day to listen to music, eat and celebrate our Church's Scottish heritage. Call me at 607-6876, Jeanne Schulz.
